

Official Side Event of the Berlin Energy Transition Dialogue 2019

Guided tour: Energy Efficient Industries

Monday, 8 April 2019 | language: English | subject to change

Energy efficiency is a pillar of energy change. Through innovations in energy-saving technologies and processes, companies can not only make an active contribution to climate protection - they can also increase customer satisfaction and set investment incentives. Experience with us places where energy efficiency is an integrative part of the business idea.

Please note: Due to safety reasons, some sites can only be visited with flat and sturdy shoes. Changeable weather conditions require weatherproof clothing. Packed lunches will be provided. Filming and photography are not allowed unless otherwise indicated at the site.
